

Welcome Visitors! As you join us today for worship, set your heart on Jesus Christ! Please take a moment to sign our guest book located in the foyer. If God has directed you to our fellowship and you desire to know more about our church family, please contact an elder or the minister. The Form for Communion

Preparation

To all of you who have confessed your sins and affirmed your faith in Christ, the promise of Jesus is sure:

"Whoever eats my body and drinks my blood has eternal life and will not come into condemnation." For on the night in which our Lord was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take eat; this is my body, which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of me." After the same manner also he took the cup, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." While remaining bread and wine, these sacred elements nevertheless become so united to the reality they signify that we do not doubt but joyfully believe that we receive in this meal nothing less than the crucified body and shed blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For all who live in rebellion against God and unbelief, this holy food and drink will bring you only further condemnation. If you do not yet confess Jesus Christ and seek to live under his gracious reign, we ask you to abstain. But all who repent and believe are invited to this sacred meal not because you are worthy in yourself, but because you are clothed in Christ's perfect righteousness. Do not allow the weakness of your faith or your failures in the Christian life to keep you from this table. For it is given to us because of our weakness and because of our failures, in order to increase our faith by feeding us with the body and blood of Jesus Christ. As the Word has promised us God's favor, so also our Heavenly Father has added this confirmation of his unchangeable promise. So come, believing sinners, for the table is ready. "Taste and see that the Lord is good."

The Consecration

Let us pray:

Almighty and everlasting God, who by the blood of your only begotten Son has secured for us a new and living way into the Holy of Holies, cleanse our minds and hearts by your Word and Spirit that we, your redeemed people, drawing close to you through this holy sacrament, may enjoy fellowship with the Holy Trinity through the body and blood of Christ our Savior. We know that our Ascended Savior does not live in temples made by hands, but is in heaven where he continues to intercede on our behalf. Through this sacrament, by Your own Word and Spirit, may these common elements be now set apart from ordinary use and through them may we be nourished with the body and blood of Christ.

Apostles Creed (optional)

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth. I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, died, and was buried; He descended into hell; The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended to heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, The holy catholic church, the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins, The resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen

We Lift Up Our Hearts

Let us now go to our Heavenly Table and receive the gift of God for our souls. By the promise of God this bread and wine are for us the body and blood of Christ.

Pastor: Lift up your hearts

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Communion

(The elements are distributed, and the minister may use the formula):

The bread which we break is a communion of the body of Christ.

Take, eat, remember, and believe that the body of our Lord Jesus Christ was broken for a complete remission of all our sins.

The cup of blessing which we bless is a communion of the blood of Christ.

Take, drink, remember, and believe that the precious blood of our Lord Jesus Christ was shed for a complete remission of all our sins.

Thanksgiving Prayer

Our Gracious Heavenly Father, we thank you for the blessing of this holy feast. Although we are unworthy to share this meal with you, it is by your invitation and dressed in Christ's righteousness that we have come boldly into the Holy of Holies. Instead of wrath, we have received your pardon; in the place of fear we have been given hope. Our High Priest and Mediator of the New Covenant has reconciled us to you and even now intercedes for us at your right hand. Please strengthen us by these gifts so that, relying only on your promise to save sinners who call on Jesus' name, we may, by your Spirit, honor you with our souls and bodies, to the honor and glory of your holy name. Amen.

Amos 9:14

"I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine, and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit."

Heidelberg Catechism Lord's Day 9

Question 26: What do you believe when you say, "I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth"?

Answer 26: That the eternal Father, who out of nothing created heaven and earth, who still upholds and rules them by His providence, is my God and Father because of Christ. He will provide whatever I need, and He will turn to my good whatever adversity He sends me.

Heidelberg Catechism Lord's Day 10

Question 27: What do you understand by the providence of God?

Answer 27: Providence is the power of God by which He upholds, as with His hand, heaven and earth and all creatures, and so rules them that all things come to us not by chance but from His fatherly hand.

Question 28: How does the knowledge of God's creation and providence help us?

Answer 28: We can be patient, thankful, and for the future we can have good confidence that nothing will separate us from His love
